

Elizabethtown College

Two choirs from Elizabethtown College in Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania (USA) present a free concert of choral music spanning the centuries. Featured works include music by CV Stanford, Dan Forrest, Miguel Astor, René Clausen and others. Members of the choir are university students from a wide range of disciplines including music, philosophy, biology, engineering, social work, education and more. The ensembles are led by Dr. Anne Gross and Matthew Fritz and accompanied by Dr. Justin Badgerow. The group is on a tour 20–29 May visiting Frankfurt, Prague, Leipzig, Salzburg, and Trier. Recent international tours by ensembles from the College include Brazil, South Africa, Northern Ireland, Wales, and Ireland. Tour information can be found here:

<http://www.matthewpfritz.com/TourConcerts.html>

About Elizabethtown College: Our commitment is to Educate for Service. We believe that learning is most noble when used to benefit others, regardless of chosen career path. We prepare our students to lead rich lives of purpose and meaning, while advancing independent thought, personal integrity and social responsibility. These are the foundations for a life of learning. We foster the values of peace, non-violence, human dignity and social justice.

Elizabethtown College, with 1,691 undergraduates from 18 states and 13 foreign countries, is an independent, residential, coeducational college in south-central Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. The College, established by the Church of the Brethren in 1899, maintains 7 schools and offers a variety of programs at numerous award levels. The core curriculum emphasizes the arts, humanities and sciences. Additional information about the College can be found at www.etown.edu.